Positioned directly on the seafront in the Tombs of the Kings district, this fourth-floor apartment looks out over open water and the city.

The resale residence covers 85.57 square meters of internal space on the top level of a four-story building served by an elevator. Renovated in 2026 with a modern finish, the interior arranges two bedrooms alongside one bathroom, oriented to capture views of both the sea and the surrounding city. Complete furnishings are available as an optional addition.
