Positioned on the top floor of a seafront building in Tombs of the Kings, this two-bedroom apartment captures views across the water and the city.

The layout provides 84.65 m² of internal space, fully updated with a modern renovation in 2026. An elevator provides access to the fourth-floor level. Inside, the living space connects directly to the sea and city outlooks, with furnishing available as an optional extra. Two bedrooms are served by two separate bathrooms.
