The coast at Paramali village is simultaneously one of the most reclusive, as well as the most active beaches in Cyprus. You won't choose it for leisure or immediate access to amenities, but it surely leaves you feeling much richer in experiences.

Paramali village is located around 25 km west to Limassol and its beach has become quite popular with those doing kitesurfing. Strong winds that blow in the area from time to time, especially in the afternoon, make it an ideal destination for this water sport.

The beach has many special treasures that will be appreciated even by those not into the sports. The most impressive thing about the beach is
