The villa is set upon a mountain side of Agios Tychonas near Armenohori village of the eastern Limassol suburbs. Perhaps no other neighborhood will open to you such breathtaking vistas and the entire coastline of Limassol. The main concept of the project is to allow you to capture the immense scopes of Cyprus and at the same time to feel that you are on the island where you may see the horizon from any point. The surrounding majestic views equal the supremacy of a luxury home. The very nature of the mountainous area and a very good location of the project have inspired our architects to construct a complex of villas, which from a distance seems weightless and even just soaring above the ground. The villa has a lower ground floor that
