A traditional stone house in Kathikas village.

Eligible for government subsidy through the Housing scheme for mountain and rural areas.

Kathikas is a very beautiful village. It is famous as a wine village, as an agrotourism village, and because of its location. It overlooks Coral Bay to the south and Latchi and Polis to the north. At the same time Kathikas lies at the borders of the biggest national park of Cyprus, the Akamas Peninsula National Park. Kathikas is one of the gateways / entry points to explore this wonderful place.
