Stroumpi is a picturesque village located in the Paphos District of Cyprus, known for its rich agricultural land. The region benefits from a Mediterranean climate, with mild winters and hot, dry summers, making it ideal for cultivating a variety of crops. The fertile soil in Stroumpi supports the growth of vineyards, olive groves, and citrus orchards, contributing to the village's local economy and traditional way of life. The landscape is dotted with terraced fields, where farmers practice both modern and traditional farming methods, preserving the village's
